Reports have come to the editor of the Interior Journal that several of the ardent "wets" of the county are objecting vigorously to the publication of the names of the petitioners for a local option election in this paper, and threatening to stop their subscriptions if it is done. The editor of the Interior Journal desires. for the third time, to state that the names of the petitioners will be published regardless of who objects and regardless of who threatens to stop their papers or anything else. Furthermore anyone who it not pleased with the course of the Interior Journal in this or any other matter, is invited to step up at once and stop his paper, if he so desires. While we are glad to have everyone in this and surrounding counties take our paper, we intend to publish what we believe is right on every proposition that arises and no threats of stopping the paper or anything else are

The Interior Journal is going to who desire to buy its advertising space. What the editor's personal views on the subject are, he intends to make known, regardless of who takes the paper or who stops it, or who advertises or who does not. We believe that the names of the petitioners for a local option election are ling colts; five good Shetland ponies. a good item of news; for news is to, and a great many people are goare asking for another whisky election in Lincoln county.

This is our position in a nutshell. Phose who do not like it can make the most of it.

a wide swath through the Common-wealth. There is a "Democratic ma chine" this year, and it is made up of Democrats of every faction, and the whirling of its mighty arms is the noise that keeps Judge O'Rear awake o'nights. The harvest it will gather will be a Democratic Governor, and Senator, and all State officers this ear, and a Democratic Pres dent next year.

Judge O'Rear is a sad sort of humorist. He asks the voters to accept his platform endorsement of President Taft, and the national poli ies and record of the Republican party, as a mere joke. He describes it as a bouquet of compliments not neant to be taken seriously. How many other similar pranks has Judge O'Rear perpetrated on the people? He should label the planks in his platform so that we can tell when he is in earnest, and when he is pokng fun at us.
